Product Overview

In today's digital landscape, businesses still require landlines to ensure reliable and professional communication. While mobile phones offer mobility, landlines provide a dedicated and stable connection and an identity that is crucial for businesses.

With e&'s Office Presence, you will get more than just a landline number. We will provide you with a landline that you can carry anywhere and in addition to that, a suite of essential tools such as domain name, eStore and more. All these tools will help you create an identity for your office hence "Office Presence".

Why Office Presence is required by business

Never Miss An Opportunity

With features such as landline on-the-go, businesses can stay connected with clients and team members regardless of their location in UAE, ensuring seamless communication and uninterrupted productivity.

Brand Recognition

The provision of a domain name allows businesses to establish a professional and memorable online identity. This enhances brand recognition and credibility.

Expand Your Business Reach

The inclusion of an eStore website builder platform empowers businesses to showcase and sell products or services online and expand their reach, drive revenue growth and gain competitive edge in the digital marketplace.

Value For Money

UCaaS as a feature of Office Presence offers a comprehensive solution that integrates various communication tools, including voice, video, messaging, and collaboration, into a single platform for the same price.
